"Writing the Truth: Persuading through Prose"
August 13th, 2022 at 1 p.m. Eastern time

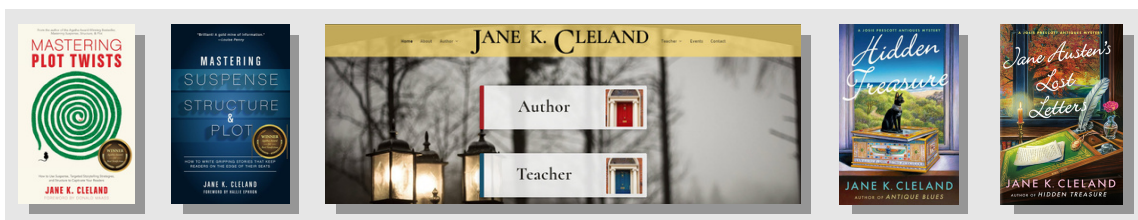

In this workshop, we'll examine the nature of truth and perception grounding our study in real-world issues, such as racism and civil rights; sex and promiscuity; and mainstreaming children with disabilities; among others.

You'll see how concrete language and detail increase the depth of readers' moral responses to your writing and how to reveal emotion and attitude through incident.

You're welcome to sign up here, and I'll send you what you need to access the workshop.

Also, I'd love it if you could help me spread the word about my free workshops by sharing this flyer via email or on social media.
