

Do you know if your draft is ready for submission?

You've finished your manuscript—now what? It's time to polish the story, add complexity to the characters, and burnish the prose. In other words, it's time to revise! This webinar will show you how to take your manuscript from draft to submission-ready!

"Revising Your Own Work"
September 17th, 2022 at 1 p.m. Eastern time

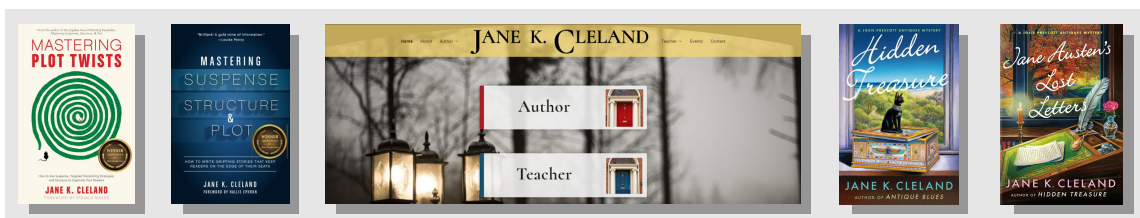

In this workshop, we'll discuss the three steps of the revision process. First, you take a wide-lens view of the plot, characters, setting, and prose. Then you move to sentence-level tweaking, ensuring your verbs and nouns are strong, active, and specific, and that you're eliminating unneeded words, while integrating setting and backstory properly. Finally, you proofread.

You'll learn professional tricks, techniques, and tips to ensure your work is ready for submission.

You're welcome to sign up here, and I'll send you what you need to access the workshop.

Also, I'd love it if you could help me spread the word about my free workshops by sharing this flyer via email or on social media.

Tell your friends! Invite your writer's group or book club! Readers welcome, too! Thank you so much!
