"The Mechanics of Effective Writing: Grammar, Punctuation, Formatting & Organizing Your Work"
November 12th, 2022 at 1 p.m. Eastern time

Effective writing and effective storytelling are two different skill sets, but both are essential to writing success!

In my upcoming workshop, we'll focus on four elements of effective writing: grammar, punctuation, formatting, and organizing your work.

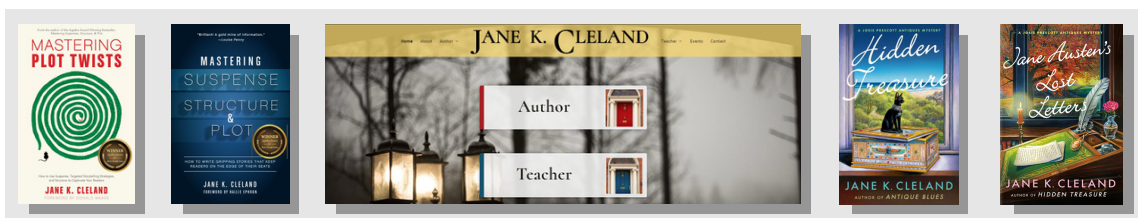

From the conventions of manuscript and cover letter formatting to sneaky grammar gremlins and punctuation pitfalls that might weaken your writing and turn off readers, I'll provide numerous examples throughout the presentation to make the concepts clear.

You'll leave the webinar with actionable ideas you can put to work immediately to improve your craft and hone your writing process.

You're welcome to sign up here, and I'll send you what you need to access the workshop.

Also, I'd love it if you could help me spread the word about my free workshops by sharing this flyer via email or on social media.

Tell your friends! Invite your writer's group or book club! Readers welcome, too! Thank you so much!
